

Woensdrecht Air Base & Fokker Techniek Facility Information

Fokker Techniek, part of Fokker Services Group, is uniquely located at Woensdrecht Air Base in the Netherlands. Woensdrecht Air Base is a military airfield with its own dedicated runway.

Having our own flight operations facilities provides you with an ideal location to visit us with your own aircraft, and discuss new opportunities, such as a new VIP completion, refurbishment or your scheduled maintenance. Of course, our airport is also easily accessible with other forms of transport, such as a car or train.
